AN ACT

For the relief of Willard Herndon Rusk.

Willard H. Rusk.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to pay, out of current appropriations available for the payment of severance pay to Lieutenant Willard Herndon Rusk, who was discharged from the United States Navy on March 24, 1966, an amount equal to the difference between (a) the amount of severance pay which would have been paid to said person upon his discharge from the United States Navy if the computation of such severance pay had been based upon his actual commissioned service in the United States Navy, and (b) the amount of severance pay actually paid to him.

Approved July 1, 1968.

AN ACT

For the relief of Captain Russell T. Randall.

Capt. Russell
T. Randall.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Captain Russell T. Randall is relieved of all liability to the United States in the amount of $594.86 representing overpayments of compensation made to him as a Marine Corps officer as the result of administrative error in the establishment of his pay entry base date due to the fact that he held enlisted status concurrent with status as a cadet USAFA and was given credit for such enlisted service in the establishment of his pay entry base date.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Captain Russell T. Randall the sum certified to him by the Secretary of the Navy as the aggregate of amounts paid by him to the United States, or withheld from amounts due him from the United States, on account of the liability referred to in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 3. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act for the payment of any claim shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with such claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved July 1, 1968.

AN ACT

For the relief of Lloyd W. Corbisier.

Lloyd W.
Corbisier.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the annual leave account of Lloyd W. Corbisier, postal employee of Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, there shall be added a separate account of three hundred and fifty hours of annual leave, in full settlement of all claims of the said Lloyd W. Corbisier against the United States for compensation for the loss of such leave which was earned by him in the period July 1, 1945, through February 28, 1948, inclusive, while he was employed in the United States Post Office in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, and which, through administrative error, was not credited to his leave account.

SEC. 2. Section 203(c) of the Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951, as amended (65 Stat. 680, 67 Stat. 137; 5 U.S.C. 2062(c)), shall not apply with respect to the leave granted by this Act, and such leave likewise shall not affect the use or accumulation, pursuant to applicable law, of other annual leave earned by the said Lloyd W. Corbisier. None of the leave granted by this Act shall be settled by means of a cash payment in the event such leave or part thereof remains unused at the time the said Lloyd W. Corbisier is separated by death or otherwise from the Federal service.

Approved July 1, 1968.

AN ACT

For the relief of Earl S. Haldeman, Junior.

July 1, 1968
[H. R. 11166]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Earl S. Haldeman, Junior, of Troy, New York, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $166.32, representing the difference between compensation received for one hundred and twelve hours of jury duty in April 1967 and the salary paid to him for the same period as an employee of the Watervliet Arsenal. In the audit and settlement of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Earl S.
Haldeman, Jr.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Earl S. Haldeman, Junior, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved July 1, 1968.
